

Pastor John Jenson & Susan Jenson, RDN

Pastor John Jenson, is the pastor of the South Bay Seventh-day Adventist Church located in Redondo Beach, California. Both Pastor Jenson and his Plant-Based Certified and Registered Dietitian Nutritionist wife, Susan Jenson, have a passion for teaching their congregation and the community they serve about the health benefits of a whole food, plant-based diet, and lifestyle. The Jenson's have been tremendously successful in drawing large crowds from the community to their nutrition lectures and seminars, and plant-based cooking schools. The South Bay Seventh-day Adventist Church has received a huge reputation in their Los Angeles Beach Cities Community for the place to go, to get the best information and education about plant-based nutrition and cooking.
